

THOUGHTS

Uphold me according to thy promise, that I may live, and let me not be put to shame in my hope.—Psalms 119:116.

Little progress can be made by merely attempting to repress what is evil; our great hope lies in developing what is good.—Calvin Coolidge.

You see that a man is justified by works and not by faith alone.—James 2:24.

Faith in the ability of a leader is of slight service unless it be united with faith in his justice.—George W. Goethals, American engineer.

Be sincere. Be simple in words, manners, and gestures. Amuse as well as instruct. If you can make a man laugh, you can make him think and make him like and believe you.—Alfred E. Smith, former governor of New York.

Women Find It's Thrilling to Color Photos in Oils!

A publisher in Chicago reports there are simple techniques for acquiring skill in coloring photographs in oils which can pay you real dividends in having a pleasurable hobby or in coloring photographs for others.

According to this publisher many people do not realize how much the appearance of a photograph can be enhanced by skillful oil coloring or how easy it is, for those with talent and aptitude, to perform the same service as a career! Whether you wish to color photographs of your family and close friends, or start a satisfying career, there are ways to gain this knowledge.

To acquaint the readers of this paper with information on this splendid hobby or career, the publishers have printed full details in an informative booklet "Photo Coloring for Pleasure or Profit" which will be sent free to anyone who requests it. No obligation. Send your name, address, and zip code to: National Photo Coloring School, 835 Diversey Parkway, Dept. 296-711, Chicago, Ill. 60614.

List of Militants No Blacklist

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Monday his attempt to compile information on campus militants had been blown out of proportion and described the list as "small and informal."

Rockefeller told newsmen that the names on the list were those of persons who had been involved in "nonpeaceful demonstrations."

The governor said the list was not to be used against anyone. He said governors and colleges across the nation should know when campus radicals come into their areas.

"In my day, party raids were the thing," he said. "I'd hate to see those people haunted for the rest of their lives for being involved in that sort of demonstration."

The governor said the list should be "purged" after a period of time of those persons who have been inactive.

Rockefeller said he had asked the FBI to "appraise us from time to time on people who are known to be agitators who may be in the state."

"We're concerned with those who might foment nonpeaceful demonstrations," Rockefeller said. He added that he was attempting to avoid "confrontations" between police and demonstrators.

The governor said the list did not contain the names of persons who participated in demonstrations last month at the Republican Governors Conference at Hot Springs. He said their names had been placed on a separate list of persons involved in peaceful protests.

Rockefeller was asked about House Speaker Hayes McClellin's statement that the list was not a "healthy thing."

The governor said it was an attempt by McClellin to get headlines. McClellin is considered a possible candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination this year.

tians opened artillery fire to cover the retreat. It is possible the number of Egyptian casualties is even larger."

An Egyptian military spokesman in Cairo said the commandos "killed a large number of enemy soldiers and destroyed an Israeli position, a truck, a tank and a jeep." None of the commandos were killed, he said, but nine were wounded.

At the United Nations, Israel charged Monday that 10 armed attacks in the last 10 days have been launched from Lebanese territory against Israeli villages, transportation and civilians.

Diplomatic sources in Paris said the U.S. government has officially expressed "concern" to the French government about reports that a $400 million sale of French arms to Libya was under consideration.

The sources said although Charles Lucet, the French ambassador to Washington, denied the arms deal was under negotiation, the French Foreign Ministry later gave the Americans private confirmation that Libya's new military government is trying to get the French to sell it 50 Mirage jets, 200 heavy tanks and radar systems for detecting low-level flights. The French balked at selling the radar, and some sources in Paris say the planes won't be delivered either but the tanks will.

To Rule on Holding of 2 Offices

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Sen. Robert Harvey of Swifton Monday asked the Arkansas Supreme Court to reverse a decision in which Chancellor P. S. Cunningham of Batesville ruled that Harvey could not hold positions of senator and delegate to the state Constitutional Convention.

Harvey argued Monday that his position as a delegate to the convention is not a civil office and doesn't violate the Constitution.

The state Supreme Court is expected to rule on the case sometime this week.

Israeli Air Strikes on Arab States

By MARCUS ELIASON Associated Press Writer

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli planes pounded military targets in Egypt and Arab guerrilla bases in Lebanon today in the wake of Egyptian land and air sorties across the Suez Canal.

A military spokesman in Tel Aviv said all Israeli planes returned safely to base.

The attack on Egyptian military objectives in the southern sector of the canal lasted more than an hour, the spokesman said.

Earlier other Israeli jets screamed over the border into Lebanon and hit guerrilla bases on the west slopes of Mt. Hermon in a raid lasting 45 minutes, according to the military command.

A military spokesman said Egyptian jets crossed the canal during the morning hours and dropped bombs on the Israeli-held east bank in two raids at each end of the waterway. No Israeli casualties or damage were listed.

The Israelis reported earlier that Egyptian commandos crossed the canal Monday night and at least nine of them were killed. It was the largest number of Egyptian casualties claimed in weeks of skirmishes and raids along the waterway.

The first bombing raid was made at 9 a.m. by four MIG-17s near El Qantara at the north end of the canal, the Israelis said, and the second 55 minutes later by four Sukhoi 7 fighter bombers near Port Sue, at the waterway's southern end.

"In both assaults, the Egyptian planes dropped their bombs on the east bank of the canal and then vanished toward the west," spokesmen said.

Spokesmen in Tel Aviv said Israeli troops clashed with the Egyptian commandos late Monday night north of Port Taufiq, at the southern end of the Suez Canal. They said there were no Israeli casualties.

"The raiding unit retreated immediately after the encounter, leaving nine dead," a spokesman said. "The Egyptian

Unified Bar Issue Up to State Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A proposal that would require all lawyers licensed to practice in the state to become members of the Arkansas Bar Association has been taken under advisement by the state Supreme Court.

Chief Justice Carleton Harris said he did not know when the court would make its decision on the proposal.

About 1,400 of the 2,600 lawyers licensed to practice in Arkansas are members of the bar.

The lawyers were polled recently and those responding narrowly voted against a unified bar. The Supreme Court, however, is not bound by the balloting.

Opponents of compulsory membership argued Monday that those supporting the proposal were making a "power grab."

Advocates of the proposal contended it would rid the association of "free-loaders" who have been reaping the benefits the association offers without paying dues and any of the costs.

Viet Cong Begins New Offensive

SAIGON (AP) — The Viet Cong and North Vietnamese made more heavy attacks on South Vietnam's northern provinces before dawn today, and U.S. officials said another phase in the enemy's winter-spring campaign has started.

First reports said 16 American troops were killed and 68 wounded in the coastal lowlands south of Da Nang, while 17 South Vietnamese were killed and 15 wounded, most of them civilians. At least 26 of the enemy were reported dead.

It was the second night of heavy enemy attacks in the region in three days. In more than a score of rocket, mortar and ground attacks Saturday night and Sunday, seven U.S. troops and 18 Vietnamese civilians were killed and 25 American troops and 78 Vietnamese civilians were wounded. Forty-four enemy were known dead.

Official sources said today the assaults were "the second phase of the Communist command's winter-spring campaign."

The heaviest attacks early today were a suicide commando assault on a U.S. Marine base camp 26 miles south of Da Nang and the shelling of My Lai, site of the alleged massacre of Vietnamese civilians by U.S. troops nearly two years ago.

Less than 50 commandos charged through a 200-round covering mortar barrage and blasted their way into the Marine camp from three sides. U.S. officers said they were sure some of the 26 enemy who died during the two-hour attack were killed by their own mortars as they raced through the camp.

The sappers ran through half the camp, firing rifles and hurling dynamite bombs and grenades at the Marine bunkers. They killed 14 Marines and wounded 59, the heaviest American casualties in a single action since Nov. 12-13.

Field reports said 20 enemy bodies were found inside the camp, including two snipers who hid under a hut and killed two Marines before they were cut down.

Lunar Rocks May Hold Sun History

By PAUL RECER AP Aerospace Writer

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A history of the sun may be permanently recorded in the rocks of the moon, say two scientists attending a lunar science conference.

Dr. Robert M. Walker of Washington University, St. Louis, and Dr. J.R. Arnold of the University of California at San Diego said Monday radiation streaming from the sun leaves minute traces in the lunar rocks.

Walker and Arnold made separate reports on studies they conducted on the Apollo 11 moon samples. They are among a group of 142 scientists who have examined the rocks and soil brought back from the moon by Apollo 11.

Walker said study of the rock under magnification after treating it with an acid etch shows tracks created by the impact of solar radiation. The atmosphere prevents this from occurring in earth rocks.

"We have never seen tracks do this before," said Walker. "This is unique to the moon and it opens a new area of scientific research."

Arnold said the presence of certain radionuclides—a type of atom—indicates they were shot into the rocks by huge bursts of energy from the sun called solar flares.

He said the presence of nuclide, Cobalt 56, is accounted for by a flare on April 12, 1969, only three months before the rock was picked up by the Apollo 11 astronauts. Other nuclides record solar flares which occurred millions of years ago, he said.

Arnold said the studies indicate that rocks on the moon could be used to trace the history of the sun back to the earliest days of the moon's existence.

Another major medical advance: a "placidity capsule" that will solve the problem of the generation gap by reducing tantrums in teenagers and cause them to salute on sight any parents they meet. The pills will be swallowed by children shortly after birth and begin to take effect on their 13th birthday.

Around the middle of the decade, plumbers will announce a national policy of discontinuing further house calls. Homeowners will be urged to make repairs themselves or take leaky faucets and pipes to a central plumbing hospital where their metal breakdowns can be diagnosed and treated more easily.

Spirito Agnew will receive and seriously consider a $100,000 offer to become chief inspirational writer for the Chinese fortune cookie industry. He will finally turn it down on the ground that such a post has never in the past helped a vice president's political fortunes.

All in all, the only guarantee that can be given the average man confronted by the frigid 1970's is that, if he survives them, he'll feel at least 10 years older if not wiser. His best bet might be to hibernate during the decade—and gain strength to face the weighty 1980's.

there was more than one killer, he replied:

"I would certainly believe there was more than one person. These three murders couldn't have been done by one man because then he would have had to stop and reload."

He pointed out that nine shots were fired while a .38 caliber pistol holds only six cartridges.

In Fairmont, W. Va., Harry L. Patrick, cochairman of a miners group which supported Yablonski against incumbent W. A. "Tony" Boyle in the election, said a meeting would be held tonight to urge a nationwide coal mine work stoppage in the Pennsylvania honor.

Patrick said the group also had sent telegrams to President Nixon and members of the West Virginia congressional delegation urging a federal investigation of the slayings.

Police said telephone lines to the Yablonski house had been cut and tires on two family cars had been deflated. There was no sign of a struggle and police ruled out robbery as a motive.

The killings were discovered by Yablonski's son, Kenneth, an attorney. He told police he went to the house after repeated calls were not unusual because his father traveled extensively and was frequently out of town.

"This is a terrible tragedy," said Boyle, who defeated Yablonski in a Dec. 9 election that capped one of the most bitter campaigns in the union's history.

Edward L. Carey, the union's legal counsel in Washington, amazed and surprised if this had anything to do with union activities. President Boyle fought hard. But there was never any suggestion of violence of any kind.

The slain union leader used to say that "Jock Yablonski can go anywhere in the coal fields," an area frequently torn by violence. After he was attacked and knocked unconscious at a campaign rally in Illinois, however, friends said he became worried about his safety.

Joseph "Chip" Yablonski, another son, said Monday that "from the very date the campaign started" there were fears for his father's life.

Glass Firm Denies It Is at Fault

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Pittsburgh Plate Glass Industries, Inc., of Pittsburgh said Monday in U.S. District Court at Little Rock that the spontaneous breakage of glass panels in the exterior of the Union National Bank building was not caused by defective manufacture of the panels.

Pickens - Bond Construction Co. of Little Rock, the general contractor for the building, filed suit Dec. 15 to determine who is responsible for replacing the panels.

The suit blames Pittsburgh Plate Glass Industries, which manufactured the panels; Thomas E. Stanley of Dallas, who designed the building; and Nichols Engineering and Material Co. of Dallas, which installed the panels.

Stanley has already denied he is liable and Nichols has been given until Jan. 15 to file its response.

Sen. Kennedy's Story Filed in Public Records

EDGARTOWN, Mass. (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy apparently has achieved what he wanted at the belated secret inquest into the death of Mary Jo Kopechne; a chance to get all of his story into a public record.

This was apparent from Kennedy's own account of his testimony Monday on the opening day of the inquest and from ground rules laid down by Judge James A. Boyle.

Leaving the Dukes County courthouse after some two hours of testimony, Kennedy appeared as relaxed and affable as the solemnity of the inquiry permitted. He told a crowd of newsmen that not only did he respond to all of the questions asked him, but did so in "the most complete way possible."

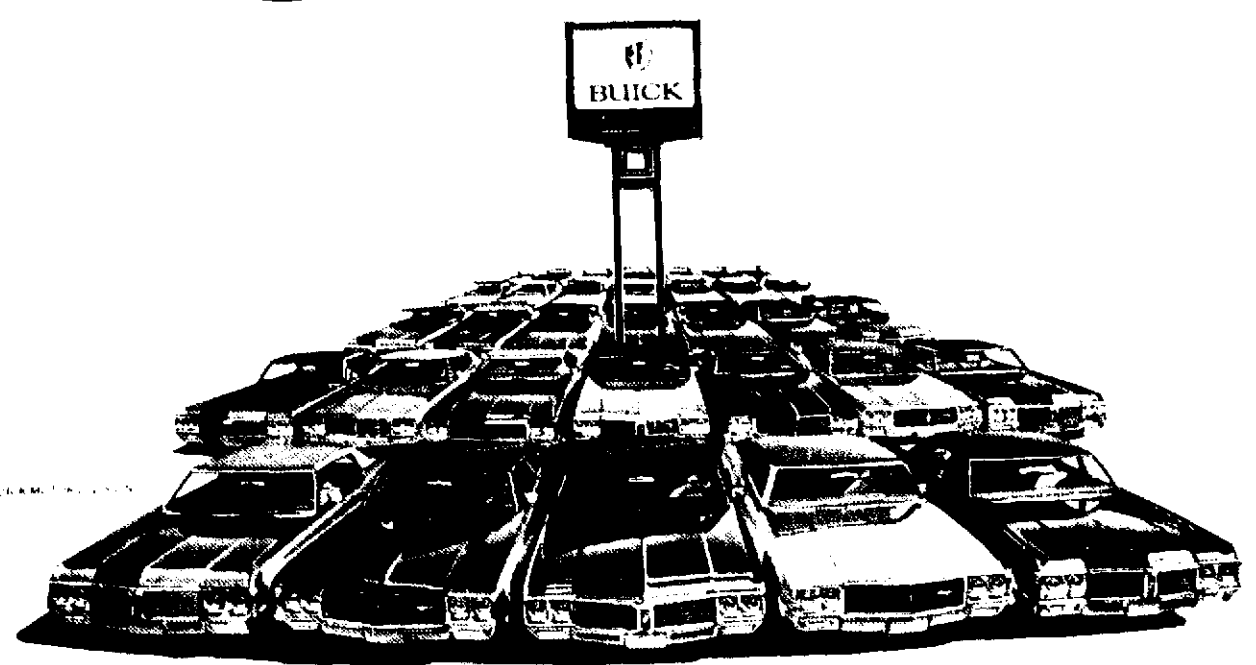

Choosing his words carefully, Kennedy went on: "At the end there were a couple of points I thought it would be useful to add to help with the record." He did not elaborate.

Judge Boyle had forbidden witnesses to discuss testimony outside of the court. Kennedy, when asked whether his testimony had paralleled the nationally televised version he offered one week after the July 18 accident on nearby Chappaquiddick Island, said:

"I'd rather not characterize the testimony but I would say yes, substantially."

The manner of the 37-year-old senator who emerged from the quaint, old courthouse Monday was in vivid contrast to the pale, haggard figure who came through the same double white doors last July with a two-month suspended jail sentence for leaving the scene and with his political future thrown in doubt.

Mrs. Kathryn Breed spent Christmas with her daughter and family, Bob, Norma Ruth and Randy Magnus, in Shreveport.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

The wedding of Miss Cynthia Carole Aslin and Edward Eugene White of Magnolia was solemnized in a beautiful ceremony at 3 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, December 27, in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Newport.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Aslin of Newport.

Mr. White is the son of Mrs. J. H. White of Magnolia and the late Mr. White.

The Rev. Lawson M. Anderson, rector of the church, officiated at the impressive double ring service, before an altar decorated with red carnations in brass altar vases.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. George McCall, organist.

David Hurley Sibley and William A. Lindsay Jr., were acolytes for the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a wedding gown of Saki, styled in an empire silhouette. The lightly scooped neckline and long sleeves were edged with Venice lace and small covered buttons ornamented the bodice. The attached sweep train flowered to chapel length. Her mantilla was of Chantilly lace and she carried a bouquet of miniature stephanotis encircling a white orchid.

Miss Mary Flo Lindsay of Wilson was maid of honor. She was gowned in Kelly green Saki designed along empire lines and trimmed with Venice lace. The dress was fashioned with a softly pleated bell skirt. On her hair she wore a wreath of Holly and french cut red carnations and carried a nosegay of the same flowers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Michael Howard of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Robin McLaughlin of Lewisville, cousin of the bridegroom. They were gowned and carried flowers identical to the honor attendant.

Angella Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Anderson of Newport, was flower girl. She wore a short red frock trimmed with white lace and carried a white chrysanthemum.

Galloway Woodward of Magnolia was his cousin's best man. Groomsman were Joe Woodward of Magnolia and Mac Woodward of Little Rock, also cousins. Ushers were Dan Joslin of Little Rock, cousins of the bridegroom, and Dan McLaughlin of Lewisville. Walter Gardner of Newport served as junior usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Aslin selected an ensemble of mint green Alaskine with matching hat and pearlized grey accessories. Her corsage was a green orchid.

Mrs. White, mother of the bridegroom, chose a silk knit costume suit of Royal blue with harmonizing accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage.

RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. (Buzz) Harper Jr., entertained with a wedding reception at their home at 806 Third Street Newport.

The house was decorated throughout with beautiful mixed arrangements of flowers.

The bride's table, overlaid with an exquisite cutwork cloth was centered with matching antique silver containers holding deep rose, white and red flowers, and white lovebirds. Mrs. Murry Wichner of Little Rock served the three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. J. Robert Holden and Mrs. Wayne White of Jonesboro alternated in presiding at the silver punch bowl.

Mrs. George Pearson of Jonesboro had charge of the bride's book placed in the music room on a small table adorned with a Memory candle.

Others assisting were Mrs. W. F. Hurley, Mrs. Bob Gardner and daughters, Ann and Lee, Mrs. Troy Johnson of Little Rock, Miss Maye Dale Gordon of Houston, Texas, Miss Lou Lindsay of Wilson, Mrs. T. E. Williams, Mrs. Jerry Frankum, Mrs. Ora L. Dotson, Mrs. J. D. Ashely, Mrs. Judson N. Hout, Mrs. Charles A. Morris, Mrs. R. L. Harper, Sr., Mrs. D. P. Fender, Mrs. John Conner, Mrs. H. C. Hurley, Mrs. Melvin Gordon, Mrs. Lawson Anderson and Miss Martha Johnston.

Angel Woodward of Magnolia, Kim and Pam Hout distributed green rice bags among the guests.

The young couple left on a wedding trip to New Orleans, La. On their return they will be at home in Hope. For travel, the bride wore a navy blue knit dress with a winter white coat. She pinned a white orchid corsage at her shoulder.

History Has Preferred Brunettes

By HELEN HENNESSY
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK—NEA—Would you believe that the hair-coloring firm that asked "Do blondes have more fun?" now claims that brunettes are the world's most sought-after women? Seems to me that just being sought after might be a lot of fun.

Do you think that the answer to that leading question on blondes was supposed to be "no?"

From the files and archives of Clairol's Brunettes Information Bureau—they must have a bureau for blondes, too, that would come up with a good case for the light side—come these facts and figures.

First the results of a recent poll show that six out of every eight men questioned preferred dark-haired damsels. And since 70 per cent of all American women are brunettes it's a comfort to know that it's not just 30 per cent of the feminine population who can lead exciting lives. And there's more on the dark side to cheer the brunettes.

As to character, brunettes are described as being very marriageable, vigorous, faithful, energetic, passionate and intelligent. Translate all this into personalities and you have some of the most important, beautiful, famous and infamous women of history—queens, first ladies, actresses and literary figures.

The Hanging Gardens of Babylon, one of the legendary Seven Wonders of the World, was built by Nebuchadnezzar to cheer up his homesick brunette bride. And the magnificent Taj Mahal was built as a shrine for a mogul emperor's dark-haired wife.

Alexander the Great's favorite girl—a brunette—inspired him in his conquest of Asia. And Cleopatra followed history's example of the power of being a brunette by wearing a black wig over her strawberry blond hair.

Theodora, a captivating dark-haired circus performer, captured Emperor Justinian and with him the title, Empress of the Byzantine Empire. Eventually she came to wield more power than her husband. And in the 16th century, Anne Boleyn, a brunette beauty caused England's split with the Catholic Church when the Pope refused to sanction her marriage to Henry VIII.

Napoleon's Josephine did a tremendous amount to advance her husband's career but she also turned out to be his "Waterloo." When they parted, the emperor's political and military fortunes took a turn for the worse.

Abraham Lincoln, FDR, Lyndon Johnson and John Kennedy all endorsed the dark-haired look by marrying brunettes and relying heavily upon them for inspiration, support and advice.

When it comes to literature, who are the most famous femme fatales—brunettes like Emma Bovary, Scarlett O'Hara, Anna Karenina and Camille, not to mention the legendary Beatrice who Dante said inspired every word he wrote.

There's no need to envy blondes. Brunettes do just as well, such as (above) Katharine Hepburn, probably the most enduring star of them all, at 60 making her Broadway musical debut as "Coco." Elizabeth Taylor Burton's dark beauty has won her share of famous men, the admiration of millions of fans and the 69.42 carat Cartier diamond. As First Lady, brunette Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis brought unequalled style and beauty to the White House. And she remains a world fashion leader today.

FOOD FOR AMERICANS

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

Homemade desserts come under the wing of pleasing, inexpensive foods to serve family or friends.

Key to stretching the food budget are dishes made of plentiful foods. Prices will be lower. During January, apples and oranges are on the list of economical items. Use these for an apple and orange betty that'll inspire calls for seconds. Traditionally a "betty" is a baked pudding made with layers of fruit, buttered bread crumbs, sugar and spices and served hot with a hard sauce or cream. When made with apples and brown sugar, it's called a "brown betty."

APPLE AND ORANGE BETTY

- 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine
- 1 quart lightly toasted (1/2-inch) bread cubes
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 2 cups chopped fresh apples; peel if preferred
- 1 (11-ounce) can or 1 cup drained mandarin or fresh orange sections
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1/2 cup orange juice

- 1/2 cup medium-fine soft bread crumbs
- 1 cup whipped cream

Drizzle butter over toasted bread cubes. Toss to blend. Combine cinnamon, salt and sugar; add to apples. Reserve a few orange sections for garnish. Add remaining orange sections to apple mixture. Place half the toasted bread cubes in a greased (1 1/2 quart) baking dish; top with half the apple mixture. Repeat layers using all the toasted bread cubes and fruit mixture. Combine lemon juice and orange juice; pour over pudding. Scatter bread crumbs over top. Cover and bake in a 350-degree oven for 20 minutes. Remove cover and continue baking for another 15 minutes or until topping is brown. Serve with soft whipped cream and garnish with reserved orange sections. Makes 6-8 servings.

Bobkittens Eliminated By Crossett

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Editor

Last night the Hope Bobkittens were eliminated from the Smackover tournament by the Crossett Eagles, in a tough battle at Smackover, 39-34.

This lowers the Kittens record to 4 and 4, and they play Magnolia here next Friday.

The Bobkittens scored first on a free throw by Jimmy Smith and a field goal by Buddy Ingram, but then stalled until Don Lively hit a free throw with 0:50 left in the first quarter. The quarter ended with Hope trailing by two 6-4.

Both teams scored nine points in the second quarter and the half ended with Crossett leading 15-13.

In the early seconds of the third quarter, Ingram hit a basket to tie the score at 15 all, but Crossett broke away for a five point lead until Danny Joyce and Lively hit field goals to pull Hope to within one, 23-22.

Once more Crossett pulled away for a 27-22 with one quarter to go.

The Bobkittens fought back hard, but foul trouble, lack of time, height, and a tight defense seemed to be against the Kittens.

Jimmy Smith started the fourth quarter with a basket followed by Lively's two charity shots to bring Hope within six, 32-26, after failing ten behind. Ingram hit two free throws and Lively a basket and the Bobkittens were only behind by two, 32-30. Crossett built up a six point lead with only 1:44 left to go and only Joyce and Barrentine hit field goals to complete the scoring.

Other Bobkittens seeing action were Gary Rhodes and Doug Archer.

The high scorers for Hope were Ingram and Joyce with 14 and 8 points respectively, and Rhodes led the Crossett scoring with 12 points.

Vikings Go South for Big Game

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS (AP) - The Vikings from the frozen North voyage south today in search of professional football's biggest prize.

The champions of the National Football League were set to leave this snowy, frigid city and arrive in balmy New Orleans, where they have a day in the Super Bowl Sunday with the Kansas City Chiefs of the American Football League.

The invasion will be joined by some 2,500 jubilant Vikings' fans, who have struggled through nine seasons of hard-fought games in bitterly cold winters to watch the Vikings become the first expansion team to win the NFL title.

"It's the most emotionally involved thing I've ever experienced," said John Murphy of Minneapolis, one of hundreds of Twin City residents who are flying to New Orleans for $234.50 on a two-day package plan sponsored by a Twin City bar.

The Vikings held a players' meeting Monday while the coaches went over game films. Head Coach Bud Grant characterized Kansas City as "tough defensively with a strong running game and an ability to control the football."

Grant said he thought Kansas City would have an advantage in preparing for the game because Minnesota's offense is basic and the Chiefs' is more varied.

Baylor Bears Maul Texas by 81-59 Score

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Baylor Bears, perennial second place finishers in the Southwest Conference basketball chase, are acting like they're tired of being the bridesmaid.

The Bears manhandled pre-season favorite Texas 81-59 Monday night in the first conference game of the season to take the early lead.

Texas Tech downed University of California at Santa Barbara 69-57 in a non-conference game—the only other tilt on Monday's schedule.

Baylor, now 8-3 for the season, took immediate command of the game and never was headed. A sudden spurt midway through the second half put it out of reach at 65-49 as both sides substituted freely.

Larry Gatewood led all scorers with 29 points for Baylor and William Chatmon hit 6 and Tom Friedman added 12 as the Bears continued to be balanced scoring.

Wayne Doyal and Mike Smith hit 13 each to lead Texas, now 5-6 for the season.

Tech broke away for its sixth victory against four losses after a rugged first half in which the score was tied seven times and the lead changed hands 19 times.

Guard Steve Miller led the Raiders with 23 points. Tech hit at a 59.5 per cent clip from the field to 41.2 for Santa Barbara.

Lamonica's Hand Not Broken

OAKLAND (AP) - Daryle Lamonica's hand was not broken when he injured it in the American Football League title game here Sunday, X rays have shown.

Lamonica, hurt in the Oakland Raiders' 17-7 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs, said he may be able to play in the league's All-Star game Jan. 17, but added "I don't want to jeopardize anything."

The X rays showed inflammation of ligaments in his wrist which make it almost impossible to pick things up, the Raider quarterback said.

Three Time Winners on Top Again

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

UCLA is back home again. The Bruins, national champions in each of the last three college basketball seasons, moved to the top of The Associated Press' major college poll today for the first time this season.

Until today, the No. 1 spot has been held first by South Carolina and then by Kentucky. But UCLA, 8-0, convinced the voters with two victories last week, the second one a 108-77 shellacking of Notre Dame.

The Bruins polled 24 first-place votes and accumulated 642 points to Kentucky's 610. The Wildcats received the other nine first-place ballots cast by sportswriters and broadcasters based on last week's games.

Its loss to UCLA was one of three suffered by Notre Dame last week and that tumbled the Irish from No. 8 right out of the Top Twenty. Notre Dame also was beaten by South Carolina and Kentucky.

South Carolina also whipped New Mexico and Bowling Green last week, running its record to 8-1 to hold its No. 3 ranking with 464 points.

North Carolina, 9-1, also won three games last week and remained No. 4. The Tarheels had 350 points. The poll did not include North Carolina's loss to South Carolina Monday night.

St. Bonaventure jumped seven places from 12th to fifth on the basis of its convincing victory in the Eastern College Athletic Conference's Holiday Festival at Madison Square Garden.

New Mexico State, 12-1, took over sixth place, with Tennessee, one-point losers to Niagara last week, falling from No. 6 to No. 12.

Jacksonville beat Hawaii by 22 points in its only start last week but it was good for a three-step jump in the ratings from 10th to seventh. Davidson also moved up three spots from No. 11 to No. 8 but the Wildcats needed three victories to do it.

Ohio University's 73-65 loss to Texas tumbled the Bobcats from fifth to ninth while North Carolina State jumped from 15th to No. 10 on the basis of three victories last week and a 10-0 log for the season.

After that came Houston, Tennessee, Marquette, Washington, Niagara, Oklahoma, Columbia Penn, Duke and Louisville in that order.

Tarkenton New QB for Pro Bowl

LOS ANGELES (AP) -

Scrambling Fran Tarkenton of the New York Giants Tuesday was named a quarterback for the East in the annual National Football League Pro Bowl game Jan. 18.

Tarkenton, scheduled to appear for the fifth time in the game, replaces Sonny Jurgensen of the Washington Redskins, who withdrew because of pending knee surgery.

Bill Nelsen of the Cleveland Browns is the other East quarterback. The West quarterbacks will be Roman Gabriel of the

Kansas City Concerned Over Injuries

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer NEW ORLEANS (AP) - Coach Hank Stram sent his Kansas City Chiefs through their first Super Bowl workout today and expressed more concern about injuries to two defensive backs than any injuries to the club's pride inflicted by the oddsmakers.

Stram and the Chiefs flew into New Orleans late Monday afternoon to find the oddsmakers making the Minnesota Vikings, who will arrive today, anywhere from 11-13 points favorites for Sunday's clash between the American and National League football champions.

But Stram showed no emotion over the odds which make his AFL champions decided underdogs, just as the New York Jets were last year.

"I have no feeling about it whatsoever," said Stram. "I never concern myself with things I can't control. I never give odds much thought."

Stram, however, was spending time thinking about two major weapons on the defensive unit that was the key to the 17-7 victory over Oakland in the AFL championship game last Sunday—veteran safety Johnny Robinson and rookie cornerback James Marsalis.

Jerry West Maintains Scoring Lead

NEW YORK (AP) - Jerry West of the Los Angeles Lakers has maintained his scoring lead at the midway point of the National Basketball Association season.

West poured in 45 points at Seattle Jan. 3 and 35 points the next night at Phoenix to boost his average to 31.2 and give him a solid shot at his first scoring title.

NBA statistics released today show Billy Cunningham of the Philadelphia 76ers remained No. 2 with a 27.5 average. Rookie Lew Alcindor of the Milwaukee Bucks jumped from sixth place to third with a 26-4 mark, one-tenth of a point better than Oscar Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals.

Bourbon St. Off-limits to Super Team

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Special AP Correspondent NEW ORLEANS (AP) - The fabled French Quarter of New Orleans jumps and jives from dusk to dawn, but not for the principals in next Sunday's Super Bowl football game.

Bourbon Street, the boulevard of strippers, jazz, highballs and high jinx, is off-limits if not officially certainly unofficially for members of the Minnesota Vikings and Kansas City Chiefs.

Asked if the AFL champion Chiefs would be permitted to dabble in his diversion, Coach Hank Stram said sternly: "We are here to prepare for a football game. Our boys will be too occupied to have time for such stuff."

But Grant, mild-mannered coach of the NFL Minnesota Vikings, was not quite as direct, but he dropped a subtle hint that even the most obtuse of his muscle men could hardly misconstrue.

"We will have a strict 11 p.m. curfew," Grant said.

On the question of off-limits for the quarter, he smiled thinly and said, "We will decide that at a team meeting, and we will have a lot of team meetings."

The Vikings are quartered at a motel adjoining the airport, a dozen miles from the heart of the city. The Chiefs are much closer, a hotel about two miles away, but, as far as the city's high life is concerned, they might as well be back in Missouri.

Spartan work and no play is the prescription for both teams—at least until Sunday night when they may break their bonds and spend some of their shares of the record $250,000 gross. Each winning player gets $15,000, each loser $7,500.

Magnolia Game Is Postponed

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Angelo Dundee got up at the press conference and said that this fight, the one between Joe Frazier and the fighter Dundee trains, Jimmy Ellis, "just had to be made because it's the one the public wants."

Dundee was only half right. The fight the public wants is between Muhammad Ali-Cassius Clay and either Frazier or Ellis. But, unlike Lola, whatever the public wants it doesn't necessarily get. Lower taxes, less pollution, no bloodshed are just a few other items along those lines.

While Ali-Clay is home reading up on his favorite law journals, Ellis, possessor of the World Boxing Association heavyweight championship, and Frazier, who is recognized as the title holder in New York and a handful of other states, a scattering of foreign countries and, precariously, at Capitol Records, will be training for their championship bout in Madison Square Garden Feb. 16.

For those who have not followed Frazier's off-the-canvas activities, he has cut some singles records for Capitol, the latest being a hummy rock tune called "Knockout Drop." He mentioned at the press conference that his records were not selling like hot cakes.

"They got their pets—Lou Rawls, Nancy Wilson, those people, that's who Capitol pushes," said Frazier. "But I tell 'em the little guy gotta come up, too. Give him a break."

So it happens, then, that Frazier obviously must continue to belt opponents to make a livelihood.

"Oh, Jimmy," said Frazier, as the two came together for the first time, "am I happy to see you. You made me almost starve. I pray for you night and day, now, so's you don't go no flu or bloody nose and cancel it. Yessir, you make me happy."

Joe went on some more and then Ellis quietly interjected and said "Stop, Joe, and catch your breath."

Both fighters were dressed in fine linen and jewels, as befits the pretenders to the throne on which the ghost of Ali-Clay sits. Frazier is blockier, blacker, looks more menacing and came equipped with a handsomely cropped beard that could have gotten him the lead in Othello. His suit was double-breasted gray. On the pinky of his left hand was a sparkling seven-cluster, one-carat ring.

Ellis, who has been accused of "duckin', shidin' and hidin'" from Frazier, is a goldish shade of tan and when he talks his eyebrows raise softly, quizzically. He is less boisterous than Frazier, and when he jibes and wise cracks it is good natured. His suit was a shade short of turquoise. He wore rings on both pinkies, one was amethyst, his birthstone, the other was a blue sapphire.

Ellis has not fought in 15 months, since he defended his title against Floyd Patterson in Stockholm. He was scheduled in December to fight a South American whose name is forgotten as soon as it is heard. But the fight mysteriously was called off. Frazier said Ellis was afraid of him (Frazier) and was just "shagin' guys out of the grave to fight."

Frazier last night Jerry Quarry for his title last June and won. Before that, he had gone against Dave Ziegler, which could be considered a little grave digging of his own.

Frazier got up to say something else. He wanted some jobs for the music group that backs him up. "The Knockouts" and said they're great for anyone "who digs shakin' his head and stompin' his feet."

Some nods in the press, some yawns. Later someone asked Ellis if he ever sees Ali-Clay, for whom he was a sparring partner for years. "Yeah," said Ellis, on Christmas morning. He came by my house in Louisville and talked. His mother only lives two, three blocks from me.

What did Ali-Clay have to say?

Merry Christmas was all," said Ellis.

Tech Coach Names Aides

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — New Texas Tech head football coach Jim Carlen has announced nine members of his staff and says he'll announce an additional assistant "in the next few days."

Carlen's staff at Tech so far includes six of his aides at West Virginia, where Carlen led the Mountaineers to a 10-1 record and a Peach Bowl victory last season. Carlen is retaining three Tech assistant coaches.

The Way He Wanted It— So Tonia's Show Goes On

Tonia Bern Campbell

By JOYCE GABRIEL
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK (NEA) — Tonia Bern Campbell popped the cork on a bottle of champagne and laughed.

"I love champagne," she said, the French accent of her native Belgium ears. "This is domestic do you mind?"

Tonia was in New York with Guy Lombardo's orchestra for a Carnegie Hall concert. She started singing again four years ago, after a long retirement.

For eight years, she was wife to Donald Campbell, British land and water speed record breaker. In 1967, he was killed in a record-setting attempt when his boat crashed.

"It's strange—Donald never thought about being killed in a crash," she said. "He always said he wanted to be shot by a jealous husband at the age of 87."

She shrugged.

"Donald had to die the day he did. It was his destiny. If he hadn't died in the boat, he would have been killed crossing the street."

"Donald was never afraid of the speed," she said. "He was trying to break 300 m.p.h. when he crashed. But he wouldn't let me drive his car, the Bluebird. I couldn't bear it, he would always say to me."

"Donald proposed to me three days after we met at the Savoy in London," she said.

said. "I was antimarriage. I wanted a career."

"I told him I would be the world's worst wife. But Donald just smiled and said he'd tried it twice before with girls who promised they'd be the best and it hadn't worked out, so he was willing to try it with the worst."

Campbell insisted that Tonia give up her career and although the marriage was successful, it was stormy.

"The best times were right before a race," she said. "Donald was a pessimist—he relied on my support."

"Of course, I always hoped the next attempt would be his last—but I knew he wouldn't give it up."

The champagne bubbled as she refilled her glass.

"I am so happy that Donald insisted I go back to work in 1966," she said. "One day, I was recording for fun in a studio I had built at our home. I was singing 'He Touched Me' and, when I finished, Donald was standing in the doorway and he said, 'I want other people to hear you sing that.' He called a friend immediately and had me booked into a London night club."

"I don't know what I would have done after he died if I hadn't had my act prepared," she said. "I wasn't with him the day of the accident. I had gone to London for a charity performance."

"His body disintegrated. For two weeks, I stood by the lake while they looked for his body."

"I moped for a while. But I kept thinking about what Donald would have said—'Don't mope up, Tonia.' So when an offer came to work in the Caribbean, I took it."

She's been performing ever since.

"I had taken 'He Touched Me' out of my act after

S. Carolina Defeats the Tar Heels

Nothing could be finer than to beat North Carolina in the evening... and South Carolina made the Tar Heels dance to their tune Monday night.

"This was a good win, North Carolina is an excellent team and deserving of its rating," Coach Frank McGuire said after his third-ranked Gamecocks topped the fourth-rated Tar Heels 65-52 in a college basketball game spiced by flaring tempers.

Slick ball handling by South Carolina's blue chip guard, John Roche, and key field goals by John Roche undermined a ball-control game by the Tar Heels.

"South Carolina has a great team," said Coach Dean Smith of North Carolina. "Our plan was to play a control game and set the tempo for the first 30 minutes, then play our normal running game."

"Our decision to play control ball was based on the fact that South Carolina has such outstanding rebound strength. We will not use this strategy when South Carolina comes to Chapel Hill."

Second-ranked Kentucky blasted Mississippi State 111-76, sixth-ranked New Mexico State hammered Texas El Paso 75-66 and 12th-ranked Tennessee was upset by Mississippi 59-57 in other top games Monday night.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Thomas Edison's inventions catapulted the world into the wondrous age of electric devices. The World Almanac says that Edison, in his biography, gave one reason for his success: "Genius is 1 per cent inspiration and 99 per cent perspiration." Edison invented the phonograph, moving-picture camera and the first economical incandescent lamp.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON APPLICATION FOR REZONING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT an application by St. Louis—San Francisco Railway Company for a rezoning has been filed with the City Planning Commission of Hope wherein the request is made to change the zone classification of the property located at West 8th street between South Pine and South Louisiana Streets and described as:

A part of Lots 1 and 4 in Block 25, College Addition to Hope, Arkansas, and across 8th street, more particularly described as follows:

Begin at the Southwest corner of Lot 4, thence east along the south boundary line of said Lot 4, 100 feet to the center line of a proposed railway right-of-way extension, thence northerly 240 feet across parts of lots 1 and 4 to the point of beginning, thence easterly 16 feet, thence southerly 300 feet across parts of said lots 1 and 4 and 8th Street, thence westerly along the south boundary line of said 8th street 32 feet, thence northerly 300 feet across said 8th street and parts of said lots 1 and 4 300 feet, and thence easterly 16 feet back to the point of beginning, from "R 2" Residential zone to "I 1" Industrial zone by amendment to the Hope Zoning Regulations.

A PUBLIC HEARING on said application will be held by the Hope Planning Commission at 7:30 p.m. on January 20, 1970 at City Hall in Hope.

ALL PARTIES IN INTEREST MAY BE HEARD at said time and place or may notify the Planning Commission by letter of their views on this matter.

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT is on file for public inspection at the City Clerk's office in City Hall.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Follow Sensible Regime To Avoid Frostbite

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

When the mercury falls people should be on guard against frostbite. According to Dr. Edward J. Stamm, a podiatrist or foot specialist, the feet are especially vulnerable because of their distance from the heart and thus the greater difficulty in maintaining adequate circulation. Near-freezing temperatures combined with moisture in the air and high winds are fully as dangerous as subzero readings.

Women are more susceptible to frostbite than men because of their tendency to follow fashion and wear shoes that expose the feet to the cold. Shoes that are too tight impair the circulation and this, too, increases the danger of cold injury.

In the early stages, frost-bitten toes become red and feel tingly. This is followed by itching and often by blistering. Once frostbitten, the feet will always have an increased vulnerability. To prevent frostbite you should wear woolen socks. Put on galoshes when going outdoors and remove them indoors to permit air to circulate around your feet. Dry your feet thoroughly after exposure to dampness and cold.

Q—What are the symptoms of mastoiditis? What happens if it is not treated? Is it caused by ear wax or ear infections? Will hot applications bring relief? What is the best treatment?

A—The symptoms of acute mastoiditis include a feeling of fullness in the ear, pain and tenderness behind the ear and fever. It is not caused by ear wax but is usually the result of a middle ear infection (otitis media) since the mastoid cells drain into the middle ear. Local heat may give temporary relief but will not cure the disease. Most victims now are cured by antibiotics but in cases of long standing the temporal bone may have to be opened and the mastoid cells scraped out.

Q—I have been taking Menrium for six months. Is this a hormone? What does it do? Is there any danger in

Q—Is the jack rabbit a true rabbit.
A—It is a hare, and not a true rabbit. The little cotton-tail of America is a rabbit.
Q—In nautical terms, what denotes the width of a vessel?
A—The width of a vessel at its widest point is its beam, and anything off to one side of a boat is said to be abeam. Beam is a measurement; abeam is a direction.

Pile on Tax Forms as Needed

By RAY DE CRANE
Distributed by Enterprise Press

Plan now to add the terms Schedules A, E, R and T to your tax vocabulary. Between now and April 15 an estimated 77,000,000 taxpayers will not only familiarize themselves with the new terms but the contents of the new tax forms as well.

It's all because of the new type of income tax return you will file this year.

The old style forms have been redesigned. New forms have been added. The old familiar Form 1040-A has been eliminated.

This year you will use Schedule A if you itemize deductions.

Schedule E, another new one, is for those who have income from pensions or annuities, rents, royalties, partnership income, trusts, small business corporation, miscellaneous income.

Another new form, Schedule T, is to be used by all those persons who compute their own tax instead of using automatic tax tables.

For all taxpayers, Schedule T will be sent as a work sheet and is attached to the return. It is a table which are placed in a section of the return where the tax is to be paid.

Refunds will be shown on a Return and Income tax must be paid on the return with Schedule T. In the new return, the new

Still retained, under their old titles, are Schedules C (business income), D (sales or exchange of property), F (farm income), G (income averaging), and SE (self-employment income).

The year 1969 was one of much tax talk, but of little tax action. Most of what Congress did last year in rewriting a tax reform package will not affect the person you will file the 1969 return with.

Internal Revenue Service has made the big change for 1969 by completely redesigning most of their tax forms.

One thing is certain about the tax outlook. Federal income taxes are coming down. The 10 per cent income tax surcharge, in effect for all of last year, was reduced to 5 per cent on Jan. 1 and is scheduled to expire on July 1. This means a full year's rate for 1970 of only 22 per cent.

All those other tax relief measures, lowering the rates, increasing the standard deduction, for example, will be phased in over a two- to three-year period. They will not affect in any way the report you are about to complete on your 1969 income.

And a Correction

What is rare for Southwest Arkansas — a light cover of snow this Tuesday morning. And having originated in the real snow country your editor high-tailed it to Fair Park at 7 a.m. to see if the snow hadn't brought the squirrels out to play. My hunch was good. Around a tree just east of the wading pool seven or eight of the rascals were holding a convention, scattering as the car approached. I returned to the office for a long-lens camera, stopped by the house for a bag of peanuts, and went back to the park for a try at a picture.

No luck. I had to settle for a mere documentary shot of snow in empty Fair Park.

Editor The Star: Thank you very much for our copy of the Hope Star, dated Monday, Dec. 29, in which you complimented us for the completion of the Interstate.

To further justify your remarks, it might interest you to know that Arkansas has been Number 1 in the Nation in completion of the Interstate System for many months and we intend to fill the gap on I-30 just as quickly as Federal Funds are available and the road grade is suitable for applying pavement. Sincerely,

At this point a correction is due on a road report I made in this column Dec. 30.

I reported shortages of adequate route markings at Jackson, Miss., Baton Rouge, La., and Tallahassee, Fla.—and I wrote letters including a copy of the Dec. 30 editorial to the State Highway Departments of Mississippi and Louisiana. But I did not write the Florida department—because on reviewing my notes after the paper had gone to press I discovered I did Florida an injustice.

I had three complaints on interchange markings, but actually they were confined to two states—one instance at Jackson, Miss., and two at Baton Rouge, La. Writing hurriedly, as always on a newspaper, I accidentally placed one of the Baton Rouge errors in Tallahassee—and hereby apologize.

Incidentally, J.W. Franks of Hope had the same experience I had at Baton Rouge, and agreed with my recommendation—that in addition to mere route numbers interchanges should be marked prominently with the name of a long-range "target" city. Above the U.S. 71 marker at Baton Rouge, for instance, should have been mounted the names Alexandria or Shreveport for northward-bound travelers, and New Orleans for people traveling south.

There was the same deficiency at Jackson, Miss., in switching from U.S. 80 to 49-98, the latter number meaning the names Hattiesburg or Mobile to reassure the southbound tourist negotiating that circular auto staircase which we call a cloverleaf interchange.

2 Die, 2 Hurt in Skid on Icy Highway

SHERIDAN, Ark. (AP)—State Police said two persons were killed and two others injured in a car-truck collision on U.S. 167 eight miles north of here this morning.

The dead were identified as Gladys Johnson, 42, and Louise Benton, 23, both of Sheridan.

Mary Ann Wilson, 28, and Christine Hamilton, 36, both of Sheridan, were injured and taken to Baptist Hospital in Little Rock.

Police said the accident occurred when the Wilson car went out of control on the ice-slick highway and spun around twice. The car was reported traveling backwards at the center of the highway when it was struck by a southbound tractor-trailer rig driven by Buddy Reese, 25, of Eldorado, Reese was not injured.

Police said the car was knocked 35 feet and came to rest on the highway.

Picket Mines in Memory of Slain Leader

By GARY GRAHAM
and
LEE LINDER
Associated Press Writers
CLARKSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Roving groups of miners moving through the coal fields of southwestern Pennsylvania shut down at least six large mines today in honor of United Mine Workers Union insurgent Joseph A. "Joek" Yablonski who was slain with his wife and daughter in their home.

The blood-spattered, pajama-clad bodies of Yablonski and the two women were found Monday in their colonial farmhouse on the outskirts of this small town.

Nearly 4,000 miners were off their jobs at U.S. Steel Corp.'s huge Robena mine complex, three Bethlehem Steel Corp. mines and two mines owned by Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.

The miners were stopped by pickets as they came to work at midnight and were asked to return home. Miners reporting to work on the daylight shift were also met by the pickets.

While Yablonski supporters in his recent unsuccessful bid for the UMW presidency have urged a nationwide coal mine work stoppage to honor his memory, there was no indication of who the pickets were.

Meanwhile, Yablonski's two sons, Kenneth and Joseph, issued a statement saying they wanted no work stoppages or any union memorials dedicated to their father. Nor they said did they want any international union members attending his funeral.

"Our father, mother and our little sister are dead," the sons said in their statement. "They were shot to death while they slept by professional assassins whose sole intentions was to kill them. There is no doubt that these horrible misdeeds are an outgrowth of our father's most recent bid to win election to the presidency of the United Mine Workers of America."

Dr. Ernest Abernathy, chief pathologist at Washington, Pa., Hospital said the 59-year-old Yablonski, whose body was sprawled on the floor of an upstairs bedroom, had been shot five times.

Abernathy said 38-caliber slugs were recovered from Yablonski's right wrist, head, right breast and throat. The fifth slug was found on the floor.

Yablonski's wife, Margaret, 57, was found on a bed in the same room. She had been shot twice in the body.

The daughter, Charlotte Joanne, 25, was found in an adjoining room. Abernathy said she had been shot twice in the head.

"I would say they were dead probably a minimum of three days, but more likely four days," Abernathy said.

N.Y. Police Nab 211,343 in Year

NEW YORK (AP)—New York City police arrested 211,343 persons in the first 11 months of last year, the police department reported Monday.

The total, slightly more than the population of Des Moines, Iowa, was up by 36,294 from the comparable 11 months of 1968. There were 69,453 arrests for felonies and the rest for lesser violations.

2 Collisions Due to Icy Streets

The Hope Police department investigated two accidents this morning, both due to icy streets.

At 7:45 a.m., a vehicle driven by Mrs. Betty Brown, going east on West Second St. slid into a car driven by Mrs. Diane Ferguson as Mrs. Brown applied her brakes. Minor damage resulted and no charges were filed by Officer John Shirley.

Officers Ward and Rowe investigated an accident at 8:50 a.m. on East Third St. near McWilliams Peach Shed. Miss Catherine C. Berry of Hope was driving East when a pickup in front of her slowed down. Miss Berry applied her brakes and lost control of her car on the ice. Morris Lee Gardner of Cleburne, Texas was behind the Berry vehicle. Gardner applied his brakes and slid into the Berry car, causing minor damage. No charges were filed.

Local and state police urge the driving public to be extremely cautious as most of the streets in Hope are glazed over and the forecast for tonight (Tuesday) is for colder weather and more hazardous driving.

3 Astronauts Grounded for Violations

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP)—Three astronauts, including Apollo 12 moonwalker Alan L. Bean, have been grounded for violating flying regulations.

The space agency announced today that Bean, Apollo 7 astronaut Walter R. Cunningham and scientist-astronaut Joseph P. Kerwin drew 30-day groundings that will be in effect until Jan. 23.

The announcement said that on Dec. 15 Bean, through a communications misunderstanding, took off from Ellington Air Force Base near the space center without a departure release.

"He thought he was cleared for take off," a spokesman said. The spokesman said that on Dec. 17 Cunningham and Kerwin, on separate flights from Ellington, violated a regulation requiring them to list a suitable alternate landing site prior to take off.

Cunningham was one of three crewmen in the Apollo 7 earth-orbit mission in October 1968. Bean, the fourth man to walk on the moon was lunar module pilot on the Apollo 12 flight in November. Kerwin, a physician, has not flown into space.

This was the scene at 7 o'clock this Tuesday morning as a light cover of snow decorated Hope's tree-studded Fair Park.

Girls Begin Testimony in Kennedy Case

EDGARTOWN, Mass. (AP)—The first of five surviving young women who attended Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's ill-fated cookout on Chappaquiddick Island last summer began testifying today in the continuing secret inquest into the death of Mary Jo Kopechne.

Kennedy himself, who apparently achieved what he wanted in the first day of the inquest—a chance to get all of his story into a public record—remained at home in Hyannis Port. Pettie Rosemary "Crickett" Keough, 24, was the first of the girls to testify, courthouse sources reported.

All five girls filed into the courthouse shortly before 10 a.m., when the second day's proceedings began.

Later, however, all but Miss Keough left—temporarily excused.

That Kennedy apparently was successful in getting a chance to place on record all of his story was evidenced by Kennedy's own account of his testimony Monday and by the ground rules laid down for the inquest by Judge James A. Boyle.

If 1960's Left You Holding Your Breath—Keep Holding It

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—If the 1960's left you a bit breathless, don't try to relax yet.

A peek into our crystal ball reveals the 1970's will give you even more of a feeling that you're spending your life riding on a roller coaster. The decade promises to be one that will separate the men from the boys.

The pace of change will speed up so much you may wind up being short-changed by change itself. It'll hardly be worthwhile learning many new things because by the time you learn them they'll already be superseded by something newer.

Mystery always masks the future, and forecasts must always be a bit fuzzy, but we fearlessly predict that:

The highways will become so crowded and dangerous that passengers and drivers will wear crash helmets as well as seat and shoulder belts. For journeys over 1,000 miles, from safety suits will be available for rent.

Protests Backed By the Enemy

J. Milton Patrick of Skiatook, Okla., who returned recently from a tour of Vietnam, told a luncheon meeting of civic leaders Monday:

"We need a moratorium on blind and destructive criticism of our policy in Southeast Asia. We need to mobilize and express the public will for peace through strength with honor."

Big Manhunt for British Kidnaper

LONDON (AP)—Scotland Yard today ordered one of London's biggest police hunts for Mrs. Muriel McKay, missing wife of a British newspaper executive.

Commander Herbert Culver, one of the yard's top officers, sent out an order to all 184 London police stations to search every derelict building and open space in the 800 square miles of the London police district in an effort to find her.

Mrs. McKay, 55, wife of News of the World executive Alex McKay, disappeared eight days ago from her home in suburban Wimbledon. Police are treating the case as a kidnapping.

No authenticated ransom message has been received and fears are growing for her safety.

Marines Try 4 for Riot at Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Defense attorneys in the riot court-martial of four black marines Monday attacked the testimony of a star government witness who testified he had advance information about trouble July 30 at Memphis Naval Air Station.

Marine Sgt. Gerald R. Rogers, noncommissioned duty officer the night violence erupted, testified that broken-off broomsticks were brought into a barracks earlier in the day.

He denied he knew who ordered the clubs or transported them to the barracks.

The defense claims the broom handles were used by a group of up to 30 white marines who ambushed Negro marines and triggered battles in the barracks and a military club. Over 20 persons were hurt.

"You understand, don't you sergeant, the defense contention that you, Sgt. Danny Carlton and Lance Cpl. Herbert J. Laster started this whole thing? A defense lawyer asked Rogers.

"I really didn't know how it was going," replied Rogers, who was the 23rd of an expected 28 government witnesses.

Rogers testimony about Pvt. Oscar W. Terry Jr. conflicted with that of another government witness called Monday.

Former club waitress Mrs. Marianne Bullock said she saw Terry attack a patron in the club with a stick, but Rogers said Terry was "just standing in the main entrance, doing nothing."

Charged with riot, conspiracy to riot, assault and other violations are Terry, 19, of Paducah, Ky.; Lance Cpl. Perry Jackson, 21, of Lauderdale, Miss.; Pfc. Arthur McCall, 20, of Birmingham; and Pfc. Charles L. Nickson, 19, of Memphis.

Plane Robber Foiled; Pilot Bounces Ship

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A man attempting to hijack a Delta Air Lines DC9 to Switzerland was thrown off balance by an intentional bumpy landing at Jacksonville International Airport today and overpowered by three passengers.

Authorities said the man, identified by the Duval County Sheriff's Office as Anton Funjek, 41, of Evansville, Ind., was held on an assault to murder charge.

Robert Starratt, chief of investigations for the sheriff's department, said the would-be hijacker attempted to seize control of the plane as it approached Jacksonville by pushing his knife to the throat of stewardess Sharon Beresford. The flight originated in Orlando.

Pilot Maurice Kuenze slammed on his brakes unnecessarily hard when the aircraft touched down, throwing the knife-wielding man off balance, Starratt said.

Three passengers immediately jumped on him, Starratt said, and overpowered him. The officer identified the passengers as Charles D. Strimple, an off-duty policeman from Willard, Ohio; Franklin Dale Hall of Orlando, a salesman; and W. J. Hillard of Green Bay, Wis.

Hall's shirt was slashed by the knife during the struggle. Starratt said he had an unconfirmed report Miss Beresford was cut slightly.

Hall, 5-foot-8 and 140 pounds, is an inactive member of the Orlando Police Department's reserve force.

The stewardess told officers Funjek whipped out the knife after returning from the plane's lounge, where he had gone after telling her he was ill.

As she helped him back to his seat, the man put the knife to her throat and said, "I want to go to Switzerland. Don't land in Jacksonville," Starratt said.

The pilot was notified by another stewardess, Janet Jones, soon after the hijacking attempt began. Airline spokesmen said the pilot and other crew members persuaded the man to let them land in Jacksonville setting up the attempt to capture him.

More Policing, Less Paperwork

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Last July 18, Mayor Joseph Alioto suggested policemen fight crime and do less paperwork. Police began issuing citations to persons charged with misdemeanors, rather than taking them to jail for formal bookings.

At year's end, 1,091 citations had been issued and only 120 persons failed to show up in court as ordered, he said Monday.

The charges ranged from petty theft to malicious mischief. Alioto says he is pleased with the experiment's success and has ordered the system continued.

Icing Makes State Roads Dangerous

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas State Police issued the following report of the state's major highways and their conditions as of 8:30 a.m. today.

U.S. 71: From the Louisiana line to Texarkana the highway is wet. Ice is reported on all bridges from Texarkana to Ashdown. From Ashdown to De Queen, the highway is becoming covered with ice and driving conditions are becoming hazardous. From Mena to Fort Smith, the highway is ice-covered and is congested.

From Fort Smith to Fayetteville, the highway is closed with snow drifts up to four feet reported. State Police say that even vehicles with chains are not moving from Fort Smith to Fayetteville. From Fayetteville to the Missouri line, the highway is ice-covered and very hazardous. Traffic is not moving.

U.S. 78: From the Louisiana line to Camden, ice in spots is reported on bridges. From Camden to Fordyce, large patches of ice are reported on bridges. From Fordyce to Pine Bluff, the highway is covered with snow and driving conditions are becoming hazardous. From Pine Bluff to Lehi, near West Memphis, it is reported ice and snow-covered and dangerous.

U.S. 167: From the Louisiana line to Fordyce, ice is reported on bridges and ice patches are reported on the highway. From Fordyce to the Missouri state line, the highway is snow and ice-covered and is considered dangerous.

U.S. 65: From the Louisiana line to Gould, ice is reported in spots on bridges. From Gould to Pine Bluff, large patches of ice are reported on the highway. From Pine Bluff to the Missouri line, the highway is snow and ice-covered and dangerous. Harrison reports that the highway is covered with from eight inches to two feet of snow.

Interstate 30: Ice is reported on overpasses from Texarkana to Prescott. From Prescott to Malvern, the highway is snow and ice-covered and slick. From Malvern to Little Rock, the highway is snow and ice-covered and dangerous.

Interstate 40: From West Memphis to Alma, the highway is snow and ice-covered and dangerous. The White River Bridge at DeValls Bluff is frozen over. Greyhound Bus Lines has canceled service to St. Louis and Fort Smith due to road conditions.

Interstate 55: From the Louisiana line to Camden, ice in spots is reported on bridges. From Camden to Fordyce, large patches of ice are reported on bridges. From Fordyce to Pine Bluff, the highway is covered with snow and driving conditions are becoming hazardous. From Pine Bluff to Lehi, near West Memphis, it is reported ice and snow-covered and dangerous.

U.S. 71 and Arkansas 59 north of Fort Smith were closed this morning. All other highways were open, but many were listed as nearly impassable.

Hundreds of traffic jams were reported in the cities as motorists fought to get to work. Many didn't make it and others had to abandon cars that could not find traction on the ice-slick streets.

Buffalo tower in Northwest Arkansas reported the heaviest snow of 14 inches. Other reports at 7 a.m. today included Jasper nine inches, Fayetteville seven inches, Harrison and Gilbert eight, Calico Rock four, Batesville, Jonesboro and Blytheville two inches, Newport and Judsonia one inch, Fort Smith four inches, Morrilton two inches, Little Rock one, Pine Ridge three and Daisy two inches.

Arkansas Wrapped in Snow, Ice

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Nearly 10 inches of new snow, whipped across the state by biting northerly winds of up to 25 miles per hour, brought activity in Arkansas to a near standstill today.

The new snow, much of which fell on a bed of ice that formed when temperatures plunged to as low as eight degrees at Harrison, created drifts of snow six to seven feet deep in the Newton area and a little less in the Fayetteville - Springdale area.

Highways became treacherous for motorists and most schools in the state did not open today.

All areas of the state reported at least an inch of snow as the state reeled under the second major snowstorm of the winter. The first storm last week dumped most of its snow on Northwest Arkansas, some of which had melted before it began snowing again Monday. Jasper has about 11 inches of snow on the ground all together.

The snowstorm was advancing southeasterly across the state and precipitation was expected to end in the state later today.

The U.S. Weather Bureau, however, said temperatures would even be colder tonight with lows from zero to eight above in the northern half of the state to 8-16 degrees in southern areas.

The snowstorm began Monday morning as a strong Arctic cold front moved into northwest sections of the state. Rain preceding the frontal system changed to snow behind the front as temperatures dropped sharply.

Frigid Arctic air was to continue to pour into the state today, gradually bringing an end to the snow. New snow was expected to accumulate up to three inches in Eastern sections and one inch elsewhere, before ending from the west.

The Weather Bureau said sunny skies should appear Wednesday with subfreezing temperatures over the northern two-thirds of the state.

U.S. 71 and Arkansas 59 north of Fort Smith were closed this morning. All other highways were open, but many were listed as nearly impassable.
